

County Safety Officers' Organization of California (CSOOC)

Founded in 1959 to protect county government workers from industrial injury or death; protect the general public from general liability exposures; and provide loss control and risk management services to public agencies. General membership is made up of not only County Safety Officers, but city and agency safety representatives, as well as Risk Management, Human Resource and Worker Compensation professionals. Associate Membership include school districts, insurance companies, general agencies, joint power authorities, special districts and individuals with special interest in the field of safety.

Membership Benefits:

- Regulatory update
- Networking
- Exchange ideas, review program needs and materials focusing on effective Injury and Illness Prevention Programs (IIPP)
- Promoting professional development in workplace safety and loss prevention
- Membership includes a discounted registration to the annual conference where you will be able to hear national speakers, proven experts, specialists and public figures present on current safety and loss prevention topics.
